ITINERARY

March 24 - Travel Day / Champaign, IL
Meet your Moostash Joe Tour Director and Driver at one of our many convenient pick-up points this morning and head east! Sit back, relax and enjoy the company of your fellow travelers today as we make our way to Champaign, IL where we check-in to the Drury Inn & Suites and enjoy Drury's great "Kickback" - where food and drinks are available. (D)

March 25 – Indianapolis Motor Speedway / Wheeling, WV
Our morning stop will be at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway and an opportunity to "Kiss the Bricks!" (depending on track availability). Home to the Indianapolis 500, the speedway is one of the most iconic venues in all of sports. We continue on to Wheeling, WV where we'll be overnight and all enjoy an evening meal together inside the White Palace at Wheeling Park. (B, D)

March 26 – Gettysburg, PA
This morning we drive through the beautiful Pennsylvania countryside on our way to Gettysburg. Upon arrival, we'll visit the Gettysburg Museum/Visitor Center for one of the world's largest collections of artifacts from the American Civil War and an opportunity to see the film "A New Birth of Freedom." Then, see the Cyclorama Center at Gettysburg National Military Park for a breath-taking panorama of Picketts charge. We'll meet our local, Battlefield Guide for a step-on guided tour of America's largest Civil War Battlefield, containing more than 40 miles of scenic avenues and over 1600 monuments and cannons in memory of those who fought and died here. After our tour we continue to the D.C. Metro where we'll spend the next four nights and enjoy an evening meal together. (B, D)

March 27 – United States Capitol / Mount Vernon
A day full of activities begins at the United States Capitol Visitor's Center, the most recognized symbol of democratic government in the world and home to Congress since 1800. Then, visit the United States Library of Congress, the largest national library in the world with more than 100 million items in three buildings. This afternoon finds us at Mount Vernon, the estate of George Washington. Mount Vernon sits on a grassy, shaded slope overlooking the Potomac River and America's most visited historic house. We'll see the inside of the Mansion as well as the Ford Orientation Center on the grounds. Dinner is in Old Town Alexandria with a bit of free time to shop before our Driving Tour to include Christ Church, Robert E. Lee's Boyhood Home and the George Washington Masonic National Memorial. (B, D)

March 28 – White House / Arlington National Cemetery
Another full day begins at the White House Visitor Center where we meet our local, step-on guide and a photo opportunity of the president's iconic home. The visitor center offers visitors a window into the president's iconic home with over 90 artifacts from the White House Collection and the 14-minute film, "White House: Reflections from Within." Later this morning we stop at the National WWI Memorial, Vietnam Veterans Memorial, Lincoln Memorial and the Korean War Memorial. This afternoon finds us at sacred Arlington National Cemetery. This 612 acre cemetery is the final resting place for President John F. Kennedy, Jacqueline Kennedy Onassis and thousands of soldiers from every major U.S. war, including the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier and the hourly Changing of the Guard. On our way back through D.C., we'll stop at the Martin Luther King, Jr. National Memorial, Franklin D. Roosevelt Memorial and Jefferson Memorial. Enjoy dinner together at a local restaurant before our evening Illuminated Monument Driving Tour. A must for any visitor, we'll view the Marine Corps Memorial, Air Force Memorial, Washington Monument, National WWII Memorial and others as time permits, as well as a walk-through of the Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts. (B, D)

March 29 – Museum of the Bible or Hillwood Estate / National Mall
This morning you have the option to visit either the Museum of the Bible, home to one of the world's largest private collections of biblical objects and artifacts or tour Hillwood Estate, the former home of cereal heiress Marjorie Merriweather Post. Those that chose this option will also drive Embassy Row, a stretch of homes built by the powerful and socially elite along Massachusetts Ave. This afternoon we come together with more options. You may visit your choice of the Smithsonian Institution's museums on the National Mall. Choices include: National Museum of African American History and Culture, National Museum of American History, National Air & Space Museum, National Museum of Natural History, National Museum of the American Indian, National Gallery of Art, Freer & Sackler Gallery, Hirshhorn Museum and Sculpture Garden and the National Museum of African Art. Our final night in the D.C. area is spent together over dinner before returning to our hotel for a good nights rest. (B, D)

March 30 – Colonial Williamsburg / Jamestown Settlement
Our local step-on guide takes us around Colonial Williamsburg this morning, including the Capitol and Governor's Palace. The Capitol is where Virginia patriots developed principles of self-government, individual liberty and responsible leadership. Enjoy some free time in Colonial Williamsburg before our afternoon guided tour of Jamestown Settlement. Jamestown Settlement commemorates the first permanent English settlement in the New World and features full-size replicas of three ships that arrived in 1607. We'll also enjoy an evening meal together after settling in for our one-night stay in Williamsburg. (B, D)

March 31 – Monticello / Historic Michie Tavern
Today we visit Thomas Jefferson's Monticello, the famed plantation home of President Thomas Jefferson. We'll tour the home, a remarkable integration of classical architecture and modern innovation, designed by Jefferson, and built on the mountain top where he had played as a boy. Lunch is at Historic Michie Tavern, one of the oldest homesteads remaining in Virginia giving us a glimpse of 18th-century life. Our day concludes in Charleston, WV where we'll be overnight. (B, L)

April 1 – Kentucky Derby Museum / St. Louis Metro
Our travels today take us through Louisville, KY and the Kentucky Derby Museum. Adjacent from legendary Churchill Downs, explore its interactive exhibits and watch the film telling the story of "The Greatest Race." Continue to the St. Louis Metro where we'll be overnight and relax and enjoy the Drury Inn "Kickback" – where complimentary food and drinks are available. (B, D)

April 2 – Return Home
Spend one last day reminiscing with your fellow travelers about your educational, historic and exciting tour to Washington, D.C.! Say goodbye to your Moostash Joe Tour Director and Driver as you arrive back at your initial pick-up points this evening. (B)
